Terms and Conditions of HCV Resource Network Membership

HCV Resource Network (HCVRN) Membership is open to non-profit or for-profit organisations that want to actively support use of the High Conservation Value (HCV) concept.

1. Membership obligations

Members are obliged to:

- 1.1. Abide to the principles of the HCVRN Charter and to the mission of the HCVRN;
- 1.2. Pay an annual fee upon signing up for membership and subsequently in the first quarter of each calendar year, upon the reception of an invoice or payment request

2. Engagement

Members of the HCVRN will contribute to:

- 2.1. Improving the HCV concept and shaping its future;
- 2.2. HCVRN governance by participating in Management Committee elections and/or standing for Management Committee (MC);
- 2.3. Working groups, projects or other activities organised by the HCVRN Secretariat.

3. Membership Fees

- 3.1. Membership fees are calculated based on the organisation's annual turnover or number of employees, its legal status (for-profit or non-profit) and the Gross National Income (GNI) of the country where it is legally based, as per the information submitted upon application and subsequently updated at the beginning of each calendar year;
- 3.2. Memberships will be automatically renewed every calendar year, unless cancelled;
- 3.3. Membership cancellations must be submitted in writing to secretariat@hcvnetwork.org before the start of the following calendar year.
- 3.4. Membership fees may be updated by the HCVRN Secretariat subject to Management Committee approval. Any updates will be notified to all Members in advance.
- 3.5. Membership officially commences on the date in which this agreement is signed.
